Year 5

Summer 1 - 2023

English:

Our focus for this half term will be Traditional Tales, following Talk for Writing strategies and daily grammar and punctuation tasks.

Traditional Tale – How the butterflies came to be.

History: Why should we remember the Maya?

• To explore the lives of the Maya today, and use this as a way to begin to explore the Maya 1,000 years ago

• To find out how the Mayans worshipped their gods, and to compare the Mayan creation myth with the Christian story of creation

• To explore what we can find out about the Maya from their ancient cities and ask why those deserted cities stayed hidden for so long.

RE – Sikhism & Hinduism

Prayer and Worship

Beliefs, morals and values

PSHE – SRE : Being my best

To manage and cope with different feelings.

Identify how to manage different situations.

Art:

Every picture tells a story – analysing famous artists work

Science – Animals including humans

- Growing up and growing old
- Human development.

P.E.

Basketball & Athletics

Maths:

Converting measures

Convert between units of metric measure and understand approximate equivalences between metric and imperial units.

Transformations

To identify and represent position if a shape on a grid following translation.

To use co-ordinates to describe a 2d shape

To identify and represent the position of a shape following a reflection using coordinates

To identify and represent the position of a shape following a reflection and/or translation

Calculation with whole numbers and decimals

To use the four operations to solve problems

Computing:

3D Modelling

To explore the effect of moving points when designing.

To understand designing for a purpose.

To understand printing and making.

Music: Dancin' in the street – Martha and the Vandellas

The history of Motown and its importance in the development of popular music