Year 4 News

Year 4 parents on Monday 18th March, we will be having a Roman day. We would like the children to come to school dressed as a Roman. This could include togas/pallas (long tunics), sandals and gold details or the children could dress as a Roman soldier, Roman emperor or Roman princess (some bed sheets might come in quite handy or a long white t-shirt with a belt around it)!

We would also like to invite parents in on this day at 9-9.30am to help the children design Roman Shields.

Cherry Lane Football

Wednesday 28th February 2024 Home game
Cherry Lane VS Rabbs Farm
1-1

Wow! What a game. Rabbs Farm came to Cherry Lane last week and put on a great show. Both teams battled through to try and gain the victory. Cherry Lane were the first to score with a great goal from Ronnie which took the score to 1-0. After half time, the game was pretty tight. Cherry Lane held their own and took on some quick players. Unfortunately Rabbs Farm were awarded a corner and scored taking the score to 1-1.

Our boys did so well to walk away with points and a draw. Well done Cherries!

Wednesday 6th March 2024 Home game
Cherry Lane VS Hillingdon Primary
3-0

The Cherry Lane football did it again! Our boys stepped up to play Hillingdon Primary school at home this week. Despite some tough tackles and injuries, the boys worked as a team and showed of their determination. Within a few minutes of making his debut, Steve scored an awesome goal, helping Cherries to take the lead. The first half saw two more goals from Steve and Dante. During the second half, Cherry Lane managed to keep a clean sheet leaving the ending score at 3 - 0.

Well done boys! We are so proud of you!
